

Judit Rozsa

Judit Rózsa is Director of Resources, Coordination and Aid Programme in the Directorate-General for Structural Reform Support of the European Commission. In her current role she is responsible for the coordination of the Technical Support Instrument delivering expertise for Member State reforms, as well as supporting the Cyprus settlement and the implementation of the EU Aid Programme to the Turkish Cypriot Community. Since joining the European Commission in 2007, she led various units in DG Employment and Social Policy and in DG Regional and Urban Policy in charge of planning and implementation of Structural Funds and European semester in various Member States. She also led policy development in the area of urban and territorial development and social inclusion.