Raluca Painter

Head of unit, Labour market, Education, Health and Social services, Directorate-General for Structural Reform Support (DG REFORM), European Commission

Raluca Painter is the Head of unit of the Labour market, Education, Health and Social services unit of the Directorate-General for Structural Reform Support (DG REFORM) of the European Commission. The unit supports Member States, through the Technical Support Instrument, to design and implement reforms as part of their efforts to support job creation and sustainable growth.

Previously, Raluca worked 13 years in banking and financial services policy in the Directorate-General for Financial Stability, Financial Services and Capital Markets Union (DG FISMA) of the European Commission. Raluca served as deputy and acting Head of unit of the Communication unit of DG FISMA. She worked on Banking Union, a key policy which contributed to restoring financial stability after the financial crisis through the establishment of a new institutional architecture for dealing with banks in the euro area and she was team leader for the Capital Markets Union initiative.

A lawyer by training, member of the Paris bar, Raluca joined the Commission in February 2008.
